THE HONGKONG DISPENSARY

On the 12th October, at St. Peter's, Baywater,

WALTER, the son of Mr. W. H. Walker, of the late Edward Henry Walker, late H.B.M. Consul, Manila, Philippine Islands.

Wife Mary Press.

HONGKONG, November 22nd 1893.

There were 2,333 visitors to the City Hall

Museum last week, of whom 169 were Europeans.

The Supreme Court will sit in Summary

Judicature on Saturday next instead of Friday.

Viscount Saurin, the new Governor's Secretary, has gone on a visit to Australia before commencing his duties here.

This afternoon on the Happy Valley the under Ringley. All members are invited to participate. Kick off at half-past four.

The following telegram has been received from the Manila office of the Pacific Mail

November 21st. "Typhoon in the Pacific" is conveying to the E. of Borneo and Davao-Galang

Channel."

The Rev. W. T. A. Barber, M.A., B.D., moderator to the late Dr. Moulton as headmaster of the Leys School, Cambridge, has been for nine years engaged in educational mission work at Wuchang, in China.

Literature mentions that Sir Henry Knopel

(whose long-expected Resurrections were an annual a little while ago to be really on the edge of publication), in spite of his age, has engaged upon a work dealing with China and the Chinese Question.

At the regular meeting of the Foresters

Lodge, No. 1165, E.C. held on the 18th inst.

Bro. A. Shotton Hooper was elected Worshipful Master for the ensuing year and Bro. J. W.

Cumming was elected Hon. Treasurer.

Guests who are invited to the Powerful's

The Sian Observer hears that the long pending case in which the Hongkong and Shanghai

Banking Corporation and Pina Falcón Páez are concerned for the recovery of 191,541 francs upon an overdraft, and which after going through the International Court, the Appeal Court, and the Privy Council, was decided in favour of the bank, has been finally settled by the decision of the satisfaction of the bank.

The noise caused by the traffic in Queen's Road Central is frequently so great as to seriously interfere with the proceedings in the Supreme Court. Yesterday morning, in addition to the ordinary hubbub, there was a good deal of shouting in the road. The Chief Justice stood it for some time, but at last he directed

Inspector Moffat to go and see what was the matter and instructed him to take into custody
